Re: Heckler & Koch Trademark Infringement
Our Ref. No.: A-360

Dear Sir or Madam:

Heckler & Koch ("H&K") is the owner of many valuable designs, trademarks, trade dress and copyrights for the word H&K, the H&K logo, the MP5® name and shape, along with many other distinctive designs and words. H&K has invested vast resources to establish its intellectual property portfolio and the goodwill associated therein. These marks and the H&K brand name that they represent are famous throughout the world. Because of H&K's popularity, extensive demand exists for H&K-related products. Consequently, the intellectual property of H&K may not be used without its express written permission. Continental Enterprises ("Continental") has been engaged by H&K to help protect their valuable intellectual property. For information on this relationship, please review the authorization letter attached as Exhibit A.

Continental has learned that numerous sellers on your website, www.gunbroker.com, are involved in the advertisement, sale and/or distribution of merchandise violating the intellectual property rights of H&K (the "Merchandise"). The Merchandise bears marks or designs that are either identical to or clear imitations or derivations of H&K's trademarks, trade dress or copyrighted material. I have attached to this correspondence as Exhibit B a specific listing of items that infringe upon these rights.

The unauthorized production or sale of merchandise bearing H&K marks and/or designs, or ones confusingly similar thereto without a license is illegal. Such activities diminish the value of H&K's intellectual property, cripple the effectiveness of H&K's licensing programs and endanger H&K's goodwill and reputation. Producing or distributing unlicensed merchandise also constitutes unfair competition. Such activities cause consumers to buy such merchandise in the mistaken belief that it originates from H&K or is otherwise licensed by or related to H&K, which siphons profits away from legitimate licensees and generates unjust profits for infringers. Consequently, the unauthorized use of H&K's intellectual property constitutes infringement, counterfeiting and dilution, unfair competition, and violates a variety of federal and state civil and criminal laws.

As the host of this website, we ask that you cooperate in ending the advertisement and sale of the Merchandise. Any further advertisement or sale of the Merchandise will be considered willful infringement. Willful infringements are subject to enhanced penalties, including, but not limited to, treble or statutory damages and attorney's fees.

Please contact me no later than ten (10) days from the date of this letter to discuss a resolution to this matter. If I do not receive any contact by this date, I will construe this to mean that you have no desire to resolve this matter informally and plan to contribute to the sellers' infringing activities in violation of the law. As such I will advise H&K to take whatever steps it deems necessary to fully protect its intellectual property rights.

This letter is being sent in an attempt to achieve a prompt and informal resolution of this matter, and is thus privileged. Nothing contained in, or omitted from, this letter is intended to be or should be considered an admission of any fact or a waiver of any right or defense, all of which are expressly reserved. Thus, this letter cannot be utilized in evidence or referred to in any litigation with regard to the merits of this matter.

Sincerely,

Darlene R. Seymour
General Counsel

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter shall confirm that Heckler & Koch ("H&K") has engaged the services of Continental Enterprises to identify and investigate unauthorized uses of the intellectual property associated with H&K. Continental Enterprises is authorized to act on behalf of H&K in pursuing infringers through civil remedies. Such authorization includes, among other necessary actions, sending cease and desist letters, negotiating informal settlements, and settling potential infringement and/or counterfeiting claims.

Continental Enterprises is further authorized to proceed on behalf of H&K in connection with anti-counterfeiting activities within the United States. This authorization includes, among other necessary actions, identifying counterfeit and other unauthorized merchandise, working with law enforcement agencies to coordinate and conduct seizures of counterfeit and/or unauthorized H&K products, assisting government agents to obtain convictions of individuals or businesses selling counterfeit products and representing H&K's interest as the victim of crimes involving counterfeit H&K products.

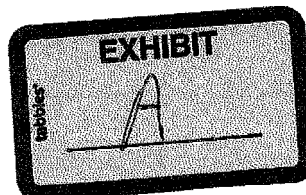

Any questions or concerns regarding these matters should be directed to Continental Enterprises.

Sincerely,

James E. Baker, Jr.
