I, Ray Hill state the following:

On February 24, 2004, at approximately 7:30 a.m., I arrived at 1440 Main Street, Woodland Park, Colorado, in an attempt to serve Barbara Robbins. As I approached the home at this location, I immediately identified Barbara Robbins, who was standing in the window in her pink robe. I identified her because of a colored business card I had for her. As I approached the door, a co-habitant of the house answered, believed to be George Asbury, the owner of the home at this location.

I did observe Barbara Robbins' vehicle parked in the driveway, a black Lexus SUV Colorado plate 993-ETE. Upon inquiry for Ms. Robbins, the unidentified male presumed to be George Asbury declined to entertain any such delivery of documents to Barbara Robbins. When I stated I had court papers for her, Barbara Robbins had moved from the kitchen area around the corner away from the door. The unidentified male then read the documents and stated to me that Ms. Robbins would not be coming to accept the documents at this time. Upon reading the documents further, he stated that someone needed to get a life and then insisted that Barbara would not come to the door and accept service. I identified the female and stated the nature of the documents by her actions in not coming forward to accept the documents. Papers were left at the front door.
