"the listings or materials listed below are not authorized by the above IP Owner, its agent, or the law and therefore infringe the IP Owner's rights"

The accused infringement is lodged against the the seller, not some invisible friend. Ebay then places a "black mark" in MY record for the infringing action by ME, not by King Features or Shamash.

Wrong about the damage. The eBay notice warns:

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Repeated violations of this or other eBay policies may result in the suspension of your account.

The suspension is up to eBay at any time it chooses for as long as it chooses. I make my living on eBay. I have a 99.9% satisfaction rating with over 11,000 transactions since 1998. Your action puts my business in danger of going under. Nothing to you perhaps but every thing to me.

You don't seem to think this is important. It isn't to you but it is to me. VeRO members retract takedowns all the time. Your own statement is that I am not the infringer here. So why not remove the takedown and I will not attempt to resell this fabric?
